

Nassau to Highbourne Cay, Exumas

28 miles – 4 hours. Sail on a broad reach.

Day 1

Arrive at Palm Cay yacht Club for boarding at 18:00hrs.

At 18:00 check-in aboard the boat and meet the welcoming skipper, crew and fellow passengers. The first night is a sleep-over at the marina acclimatizing and enjoying the elegant surroundings of the best yacht club in the Bahamas.

Dinner: Dine aboard then have cocktails at the marina bar ashore with new sailing friends.

Day 2

HIGHBOURNE CAY: Sail early from Nassau to the Exumas' Highbourne Cay. Take advantage of watersports or explore the beach. Highbourne Cay provides a first swim and snorkel in the Exumas, sharing the translucent waters with dozens of species of colorful fish. Alternative anchorage for the night is Norman's Cay depending on weather.

Dinner: Toast the sunset with new crewmate friends aboard, before a sumptuous Bahamian feast prepared by the yachts' chef.

Highbourne Cay to Shroud Cay

12 miles – 2 hours.

Day 3

SHROUD CAY: Upon dropping anchor in a breathtaking azure lagoon, enjoy another tropically inspired lunch. In store for the afternoon is a kayak, dinghy or paddle board exploration of this pristine cove and the fascinating mangrove lined creeks that wind through the island highlighting unique flora and fauna. It's a perfect place for swimming with the Shroud Cay "washing machine"! Later there is time to do some snorkeling and underwater photography or just relax on the beach.

Dinner: Dinner onboard under the bright stars.

Shroud Cay to Staniel Cay

24 miles – 4 hours.

Day 4

STANIEL CAY: After breakfast and a morning snorkel, sail from Shroud Cay towards Staniel Cay. On route stop-off at Big Major Cay “Pig beach” to meet the famous colony of swimming pigs that have gained international notoriety for swimming out to greet visitors and for their sheer cuteness! After swimming, photographing and feeding watermelon to the pigs enjoy another lovely alfresco lunch aboard. But don’t put the underwater camera away as a phenomenal Grotto where James Bond once swam awaits on a nearby islet. Thunderball grotto, the backdrop in a Bond film, is an impressive sized cave with translucent waters teaming with curious Caribbean fish! Upon arrival at Staniel Cay take a mooring buoy then explore this tiny Popeye village and enjoy a cool spiced rum cocktail at the yacht club pub.

Dinner: Returning to the boat there is time to freshen up before a divine seafood feast as the sun’s glow illuminates the horizon. Another day in the Exumas ends taking in some night-life at the yacht club bar or star gazing on the boat trampoline!

Staniel Cay to Compass Cay to Cambridge Cay

14 miles – 2 hours followed by 7 miles 1 hour.

Day 5

COMPASS CAY: Prior to leaving Staniel Cay, visit Rachel bubble bath (special tide conditions need to be in place to enjoy this fully). Then head onto Compass Cay. There's a possibility to swim with small nurse sharks or just relax on the beautiful beach.

In the evening there is a short sail to Cambridge Cay for a peaceful anchorage for the night.

Dinner: Spend the night enjoying more tropical cocktails and another fabulously fresh seafood meal prepared by your crew. Later, identify the constellations across the vast night's sky and connect with your new crewmate friends from all over the world.

Cambridge Cay to Warderick Wells Cay to Norman's Cay

15 miles – 2.5hrs then 9 miles – 1.5hrs

Day 6

In the morning, head to O'Brien's Cay (next to Johnny Depp's former island) also named the Aquarium for one of the best snorkeling sessions and sandbank to discover.

WARDERICK WELLS CAY: After a delightful tropical lunch, don't miss out on the hike to the top of Boo Boo hill, watching for sandpipers, tropical flowers and the unique blow holes created by tidal surge flowing under the island's porous coral base.

NORMAN CAY: Later in the day head to Norman's Cay which allows for an interesting snorkel on a sunken plane. The 1980's wreck of the drug running plane has since turned into a wonderful artificial reef, complete with dozens of dazzling tropical fish species and colorful spiny lobster peeking out of the coral garden dwellings

Dinner: Dine aboard with your fellow crew mates on another freshly prepared meal prepared by the onboard chef.

Norman Cay to Allen Cay to Palm Cay, Nassau

14 miles – 2 hours then 32 miles – 5 hours.

Day 7

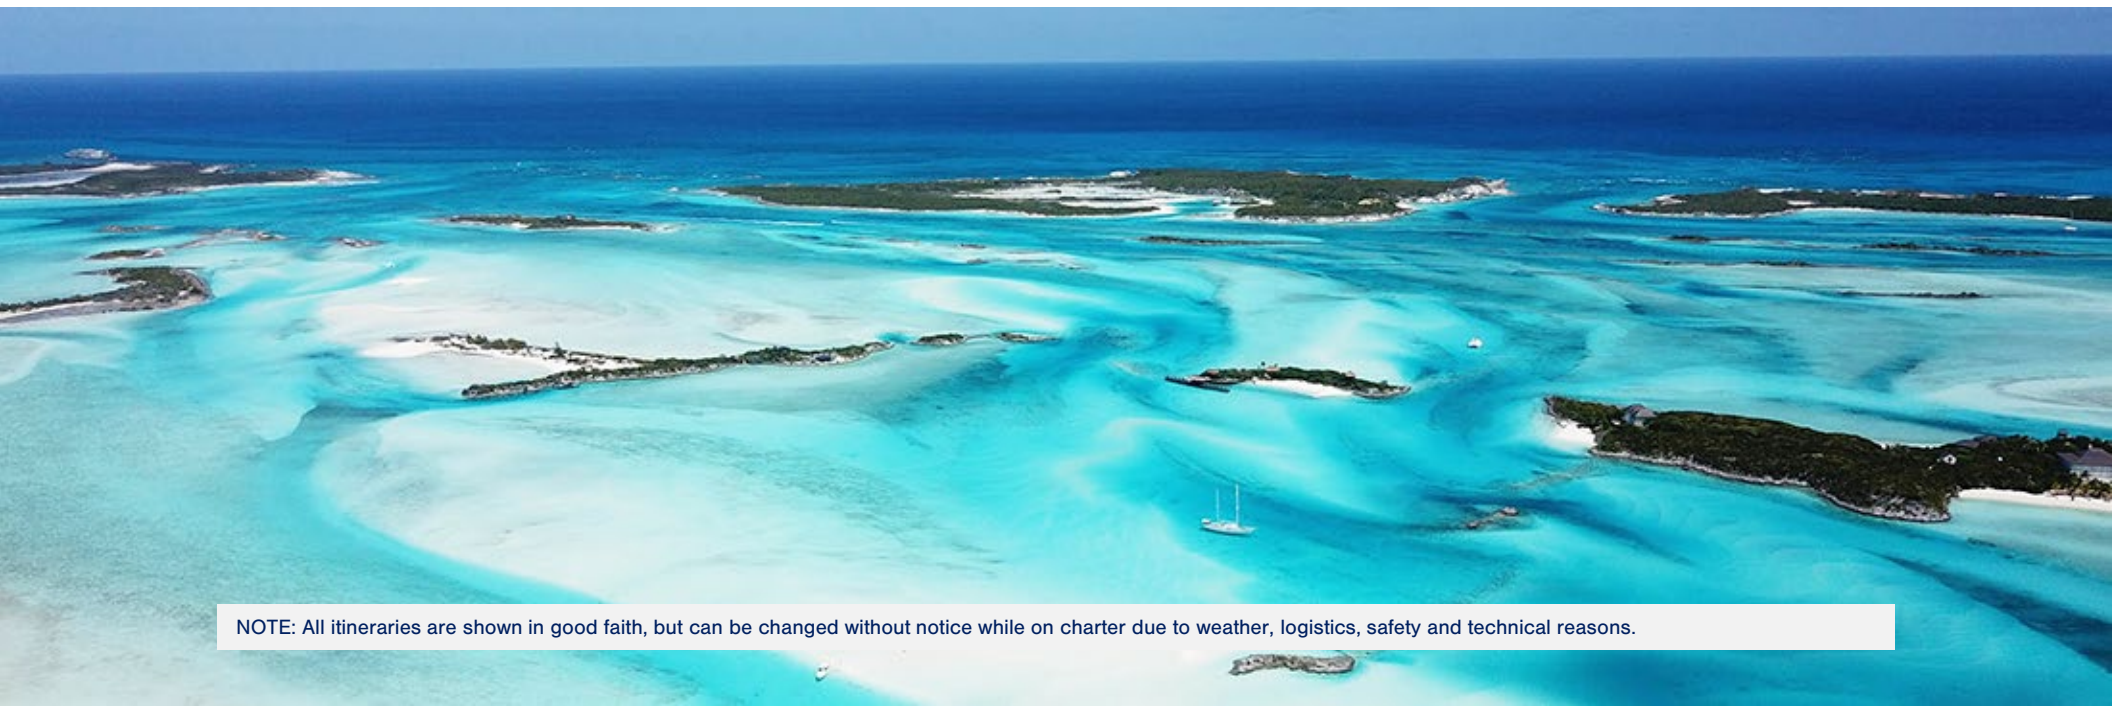

NASSAU: An early breakfast allows for a visit to Allen's Cay and its iguanas before a spirited close-hauled 32-mile crossing northwest from Allen Cay to Nassau returning to the stunning the Palm Cay Marina. Enjoy dinner onboard.

Dinner: Enjoy dinner onboard. Optional transfer to Atlantis Paradise island at 8pm for casino and exploring the resort and aquarium. Return at 10pm. Cost round trip USD35 per px.

Day 8
