

Tahiti: Society Islands

7-night: Raiatea to Raiatea

Raiatea to Tahaa

11 miles – 2 hours. Motor then sail on a reach inside the lagoon.

Day 1

Fly into Raiatea airport and take a ten-minute taxi ride to the marina at Uturoa on Raiatea.

Arrive at the marina for boarding.

Board the yacht and enjoy lunch on board followed by a short passage inside the lagoon of Raiatea and Tahaa to a wonderful anchorage near Tautau island. A shore expedition to a sandy motu island on the barrier reef is highlighted by a drift snorkel on the incoming tide over a kaleidoscope of colorful living corals and anemones loaded with clownfish. This amazing ride ends in the shallow sandy waters of the motu surrounded by dozens of curious, yellow butterflyfish.

Dinner: Enjoy a dinner onboard under the starry night skies.

Tahaa to Bora Bora

22 miles - 4 hours. Motor out of the lagoon then sail on a nice broad reach.

Day 2

BORA BORA: Sail on open Pacific ocean and watch as Bora Bora's magnificent piton rises out of the horizon. Arrive for an amazing tropical lunch at anchor, inside the barrier reef at the small motu island of Tapu. After lunch, one of the many highlights of the trip is to swim in the azure waters with black tip reef sharks and sand rays, both of which are used to human visitors and are harmless. The rays love to interact and come right up to be held and hand fed with small pieces of fish. A stop can be made to explore Bora Bora's main town Vaitape. Later in the day cruise by some of the lavish over the water bungalows.

Dinner: Dine aboard with spectacular views of the sea, rain forest and Bora Bora's two volcanic peaks or head for dinner ashore at one of the many hotels in the lagoon.

Bora Bora

8 miles – 1.2 hours. Motor inside the lagoon.

Day 3

BORA BORA: Start early with a pre-breakfast snorkel with the graceful manta rays who feed before sunrise. After breakfast snorkel through a coral garden and feed bread to a profusion of colourful fish. Later sail to a private motu island, on an optional pre-arranged excursion enjoy a Tahitian BBQ lunch on shore. Spend the afternoon sunbathing, beachcombing, paddle boarding and gazing at the captivating Bora Bora topography.

Dinner: This is a great opportunity to eat ashore at world-renowned Bloody Mary's restaurant, which features the largest display of fresh local fish and imported steaks in the world! It is a divine experience and casual attire along with flip flops can be worn -as the floor is sand!

Bora Bora to Raiatea

30 miles - 4 hours. Motor out of the lagoon and sail on a close reach back to Raiatea.

Raiatea to Tahaa

7 miles – 1 hour. Motor inside the lagoon to Tahaa.

Day 4

RAIATEA: Raise the sails inside the Bora Bora lagoon and watch as the hulls slice their way through the water towards Raiatea. Enjoy another exotic lunch upon arrival, then take the optional excursion to a pearl farm and see how the local pearl farmers produce these exquisite gems. The evening anchorage is just off Uturoa and cocktail hour is spent watching another spectacular South Pacific sunset.

Dinner: Enjoy a tropical seafood or meat dinner cooked aboard.

Day 5

RAIATEA and TAHAA: After breakfast the yacht docks at Uturoa port of Raiatea, to allow time for shopping in the small village. An optional guided excursion of Raiatea allows a visit to a rain forest vanilla plantation, the archeological site of Taputapuatea and waterfalls. The evening anchorage is motu Ceran off Tahaa, a deserted island along the barrier reef. There is time for a swim, kayak or paddle board ride to shore to explore this coconut plantation island.

Dinner: Enjoy another tasty tropical themed meal aboard.

Tahaa to Huahine

34 miles – 5 hours. Beautiful broad reach to Huahine.

Day 6

HUAHINE: After a heavenly breakfast, exit Tahaa's eastern reef passage and head to the more remote island of Huahine. Upon arrival enjoy a nice lunch in Bourayne Bay and spend the afternoon at Ana Iti beach kayaking, snorkeling or just soaking up the sun. In the afternoon, take a short sail down the lagoon and anchor for the night just off a thatched roof hotel, where you can enjoy an optional excursion to a Polynesian Luau meal and 'Ori Tahiti' dancing.

Dinner: As part of the excursion package, enjoy a wonderful Polynesian meal at the hotel.

Huahine to Raiatea

34 miles – 5 hours. A nice close hauled sail back to Raiatea.

Day 7

HUAHINE: After breakfast, motor inside the lagoon to Fare village and explore the handicraft shops. Then join an optional guided excursion featuring tidal fish traps, ancient Polynesian historic sites, sacred eels and an endless beach to beachcomb for shells. Lunch is served back aboard before a nice afternoon sail back to Raiatea and a sunset anchorage.

Dinner: Enjoy a last delicious Polynesian meal aboard.
