

Caribbean: Windward Islands

7-night: Grenada to Grenada

St George's, Grenada to Carriacou to Sandy Island

38 miles – 6 hours. Tack north up to Carriacou.

Day 1

Arrive at Port Louis Marina for boarding at 17-18:00hrs.

Board the catamaran, unpack and meet the crew over a gourmet Grenadines welcome meal. The first night is a sleep-over in the port.

Dinner: Dine aboard then have cocktails at the marina bar ashore with new sailing friends.

Day 2

CARRIACOU: Participate in an exhilarating morning sail to Tyrell Bay on Carriacou island. Anchor amongst the yachts and fishing boats and wander the long beach. There is time for a drink ashore at Lazy Turtle, Barracuda's or the Tyrell Beach Club.

SANDY ISLAND: Take the short passage to the pristine shores of Sandy Island. Spend the afternoon swimming, snorkeling, kayaking or paddle boarding. The powdery soft sandy beach offers remote sunbathing opportunities, beach-combing and shell collecting.

Dinner: Dine aboard on wonderful Caribbean spiced grilled meat or seafood.

Sandy Island to Union Island

15 miles - 2 hours. Sail close hauled due north.

Day 3

UNION ISLAND: Wake and watch the pelicans perform aerobatic dives around the boat over breakfast. There is time for more snorkelling in the paradise of Sandy island before raising anchor and sailing over to lively Clifton town on Union island. Explore colourful Clifton Harbour, while the captain completes customs formalities ashore. In the afternoon, the anchorage is the more remote Chatham bay on Union island for more water sports. Explore the beach and stop off for a cold drink at Sunset Cove or Paradise View Beach Bar.

Dinner: Enjoy another wonderful West Indies themed meal aboard.

Union Island to Mayreau

6 miles – 1 hour. Tack upwind northeast.

Day 4

MAYREAU: After breakfast motorsail or tack northeast to Carnash or Salt Whistle Bay on Mayreau island. This is the least populated of the Grenadines with only 300 inhabitants. Enjoy some more watersports off this remote beach community before another tasty tropical lunch. Later explore the quaint island on a one-hour hike up the main road leading to the Church of Immaculate Conception, and a panoramic view of the Tobago Cays lying to the east. Stop for a drink along the way at Combination Café or Denis' Hideaway, nestled between colourfully painted cottages and shops.

Dinner: Dine on scrumptious salads, seafood and meat dishes aboard ship.

Mayreau to Tobago Cays

3 miles – 0.5 hours. Short sail on a broad reach.

Day 5

TOBAGO CAYS: After breakfast and a swim head over to the pearl of the Caribbean, the aquamarine lagoon of the Tobago Cays. This trip highlight offers phenomenal snorkelling with an abundance of marine life including sea turtles and hundreds of fish in a kaleidoscope of color. Spend the day photographing or identifying fish and living coral, enjoying watersports or simply laying out on the pink sand. After lunch wander along powdery soft beaches or hike on island trails lined with cactus, frangipani and hibiscus. Later a pre-arranged excursion includes a beach barbeque and rum treasure hunt. Take a small boat to Petit Tabac, the tiny islet featured in the Pirates of the Caribbean film, where Capt. Jack Sparrow was abandoned ashore.

Dinner: Enjoy a fun beach barbeque, under the stars, in this heavenly setting.

Tobago Cays to Union Island to Petit St Vincent

10 miles – 1.5 hours. Two short downwind broad reaches.

Day 6

PETIT ST VINCENT: After breakfast explore the Tobago Cays marine park by dinghy snorkel expedition, and spend more time meeting the diverse sea creatures who reside in this beautiful protected area. Later, sail on a nice downwind broad reach to Clifton and have lunch aboard, while the skipper clears customs back into Grenadian territorial waters. In the afternoon, the vessel anchors at delightfully remote Petit St. Vincent. Although a private resort island, sailing guests are welcome ashore at both the beach bar and the main restaurant for finer dining. The afternoon is spent relaxing on the beach or exploring this posh, eco-friendly resort.

Dinner: Dine aboard ship or give the crew a break and dine ashore with reservations at the hotel restaurant or beach bar restaurant.

Petit St Vincent to Grenada

50 miles – 7 hours. Downwind broad reach.

Prickly Bay to Port Louis Marina, St George's, Grenada

8 miles – 1 hour. Motor around the headland towards St George's.

Day 7

PRICKLY BAY: The best sailing day of the week begins after an early start. A downwind reach on a large catamaran is an exhilarating experience, as the bows slice through the sapphire seas and the speedometer measures double digits! It is a great opportunity to take the helm on the flying bridge and feel the power of the wind fill the huge sails. Lunch is underway and arrival in the southern anchorage of Prickly Bay is in the late afternoon. Step ashore and celebrate the trip with an extended happy hour at the Prickly Bay Marina bar, followed by a last dinner and sunset aboard.

Dinner: Enjoy a divine farewell dinner aboard with your friendly crew.

Day 8
